Thousands of people have been affected by the storm and heavy rains left the country's capital city of Manila flooded. The eye of Typhoon Ketsana made landfall on Tuesday morning. The storm had maximum sustained winds of 205mph and was the most powerful typhoon to hit the region in 13 years. Image: Storms hit parts of the Philippines on Tuesday It has left more than 250 people dead from landslides and flooding caused by torrential downpours, and five others died in separate incidents. Ninety-seven people have also been reported missing. Prayers for the Philippines The tragedy has been compounded by an air traffic accident that saw a passenger plane crash on a highway outside the capital. The Philippine air force said it was investigating the cause of the accident at the Mactan-Cebu International Airport, though it is not thought to be related to the storm. A total of 18 people were injured, according to the airport authorities. Image: A man operates a motorboat through surging flood
