 - Contains an original soundtrack and the Hounds level theme is available in "Hunt: Showdown" game plus soundtrack bundle. This DLC item can be purchased separately for the special price of €6.99.
 - "The Bite" Legendary weapon (optional)
- Your chance to own the original hunting weapon "The Bite" was set in motion when Tuck's former partner in arms, Bryan Tanzer, went missing under mysterious circumstances after a botched mission. The two had been working as hired guns for an old friend of their employer, taking out contract after contract. But when they found themselves being hunted themselves, the pair had no choice but to splinter and flee, each scrambling for a new life. Maybe fate will bring them back together to hunt down the man behind the contract; maybe their fate lies hidden in these Louisiana woods. If they face death up close and personal, they'll be set up in front of the Beast Hunter

The "Bite" Legendary weapon is the perfect match for the Beast Hunter class - small, slow, deadly, easy to handle. It is a double-barrelled shotgun that fires dual explosive rounds. This weapon is to be found in Story Mode and in Survival Mode.

Additional notes Please note the following

What's new in Klang Soundtrack:

Redaxium, stylized as REDAXIUM, is a black and death metal band that was founded in Bydgoszcz by Jacek Pniewski (bass, vocals) and Maciek Wichura (guitar, vocals) in the year 1995. He was the only member of the band until Mikołaj Zięba's (guitar) arrival in 2000. Biography Kontowarunki (1995) The beginning of the band was supported by the Bozen colloquium PODASUMA (organisation of progressive and rock music), and the initial name of the band was Kontowarunki. In those days Jacek Pniewski created traditional music arrangements and then, according to preference, played the music on his own or with certain others. He also took part in filming and recording songs on a recorder. That's what started to be the base of the Redaxium tracks. After graduation, he was a freelance musician and focused on his own projects, and Redaxium itself was chosen as songwriter of Jacek Pniewski. In March 1997 the band performed its first concert, which was supported by Bozen colloquium. In the early days of the band there were various arrangements: Pniewski - bass, Maciek Wichura - guitar, Danuta Pawluczowska - guitar, Borut Bańczyk - drums. This arrangement was dominant until the end of 1998, when the rhythm section was changed. In 1998 Jacek Pniewski decided that he would be a songwriter, not a drummer, and joined up with Mikołaj Zięba on the guitar. The change contributed to the development of Redaxium. It included the musician from the compositions that turned Jacek Pniewski into a serious composer. After the formation of the original line-up, the band changed its name to "Redaxium". The early Redaxium period included the writing of dozens of classic songs, among others "Nebła niebo nie bih mnie beatuj" ('The darkness of heaven should not beat me'), "Gywni włosy poddaje się weloku" ('The hair of the sheep submit willingly') and the first Redaxium songs featured - "Krótka lekcja maltus

Nitro is an ex-cop vigilante. Unsatisfied with the police force, he deserted to fight crime on his own. He decided to enter the Lethal League to help in his investigations. Nitro does not know the meaning of 'undercover' and likes to make his presence well known before he deals out justice with his giant cuff-gun. It all begins with a robbery in an art gallery. Nitro is there to catch the thief, but the masked crook manages to get away with several pieces of priceless art. Now Nitro has two problems: Find the thief and get the stolen art back before someone else gets their hands on it. The facts you need to solve the case are always spread out in a stylish manga fashion. The pages of each chapter are presented with a colorful anime-styled artstyle. You can flip through the pages to see which pieces of evidence are relevant to you and which will waste time. Some pieces of evidence are highlighted when it becomes relevant. Which pieces of evidence are relevant and what changes to your investigation are shown in an interactive graphic format. You can also tweak the locations and activities of your eight co-leagues throughout the investigation. It's up to you to choose which tactics to employ to find the thief and get your art back safely before an auction. The results are dynamically depicted on the two page of each chapter. There are 8 playable characters in Lethal League. They can be played as teams of 4 or players can play independently. Each character plays differently. Some characters are just as tanky as other characters. Their unique abilities sometimes have a pretty cool effect on others. Each character also has four different Lethal Waves. On certain levels you'll be matched with different opponents who differ in power level. How to Play:

There is no need to read the instructions before you start! Every type of interaction can be performed by simply clicking the appropriate button on your keyboard. In each case you'll be presented with a short dialog box that shows what information you need to perform the given action. The dialog box will instruct you what action to perform by giving you a list of available buttons. You can freely click on a button to perform that action. You can also drag the desired button to place it to the right-hand side of the screen. Play Lethal League! About This Game Nitro is an ex-cop vigilante. Unsatisfied with the police force, he deserted to fight crime on his own.

About Rogue Company - Year 1 Pass

Rogue Company - Year 1 Pass Game Description

Rogue Company - Year 1 Pass [a real shooter/3rd person scary shooter]

In this "Year 1," your squad has lost two of their own: hell hath no fury like a tank team against a ragtag Rangers group. To make matters worse, an array of hunter-killer missiles, hovering killer drones, and robotic command bots are helping the smart enemies.

The game does offer the option to import the database of the TSW multiplayer into Rogue Company - Year 1 Pass - Add-on, if you're a real stickler.
