Under License & Published by KausKit Designs Introduction: The steps explained here are very basic and the game development process is incredibly vast so a lot of stuff may escape you but I'll try to take them over to explain what's going on. 1) The first steps are the most exciting, especially as you're thinking about the game you want to develop. A lot of people forget this part but the most important thing here is the idea that you can only consider as a "project" once you have a playable demo. 2) The next few steps are pretty straight-forward, however the learning curve is so steep it's hard to miss but I'll talk about it anyway :) 3) The most important part is obviously the first game where you deploy everything and play it for the first time. You'll be amazed by how difficult or easy it was but you'll see what you should have known from the start. 4) After that experience you'll be ready to start working on the second game and from there you

WingMan is played in a classic Ping Pong (red, white, blue) game with a rule set slightly modified to create more tension and strategy. The rules:

- Object of the game is to be the last player standing.
- Player can move left or right with any card on the table.
- Player can move forward one space from his/her starting position.
- If player lands on a card that no one has claimed, it goes to the player to the right that is not seated on the table.
- Players cannot move backward one space.
- If two players land on cards of the same color, the player on the left goes first.

-i Jumping Jax-i is a British children's anim  series that first aired on CBBC in the United Kingdom from 24 January 2005 to 31 March 2007. The series featured Jonas King and Jenni Falconer in the role of the four main characters, Jax, Jess, Posh and Micky. 26 episodes were produced, with two additional specials released as multiple editions of the series. All 26 episodes are currently being remade in America, also called Jumping Jax-I. Some American media outlets and fans sometimes name the show Jumping Jax-I as well, though it is actually called Jumping Jax-i. Premise Jumping Jax-i was broadcast on CBBC, an educational television channel aimed at children between the ages of five and fifteen. The series is part of the CBBC Big News'' family, which also includes appearances by well-known presenters such as Lynda Snell and Angela Barnes. The series, about Jax, his family, friends and other animals around the world, sees Jax, his younger sister, Jess, and brother Posh go on many adventures to save the Earth. Characters Jax Jax-I Voiced by Jonas King (until episode 25) Jonny Lowenstein (since episode 26) Jax, the main character, is a koala living on Earth. He is very talkative and has interests in science, and earth science. He often attempts to help his friends and family by traveling to different places as well as catching criminals. He is very energetic and clever. He tends to be clumsy, though he learns new things fairly quickly. Jess Jax-i Voiced by Jenni Falconer (until episode 25) Anna Belknap (since episode 26) Jess, Jax's younger sister, is the main comic relief character. She loves escaping into fantasy. She is very resourceful, lighthearted, confident, imaginative and also sometimes dirty, likes to take advantage of Jax, and often puts her allies in danger. Her instincts and nose for danger make her an invaluable addition to the team. She seems to have recurring dreams about green space creatures, one of them is a giant spider named Burt (named after the young cat). There are some hints that in her dreams her parents are trying to move her or kidnap her, but they are often thwarted. Her most prominent appearance in this series of dreams is in episode 27 of
