Plans for Pechanga Baseball Stadium started back in 2010. At the time, officials said the stadium would take 18 months to build and seat 2,500 to 3,000 people. The project faced stiff opposition from neighboring residents. “This is a colossal waste of taxpayer money. It will further erode quality-of-life in the community, as well as damage the schools and the police station,” Jasen Thompson, a resident, told NBC7. “I think the voters need to have some evidence that this is a good idea before they go ahead and actually do this.” In 2012,
