JOHOR BARU: Umno Youth chief Datuk Seri Ahmad Fuad Ismail has denied allegations by the Opposition that the party was struggling to gain new voters and it was due to people having disenchantment with Umno. "It is not true that Umno is struggling to gain new voters. Our membership of Umno has grown by at least 20 per cent in recent months," he said after meeting the Director of Elections, Wan Ahmad Wan Omar at the police station here Thursday. "It is not true that people are having disenchantment with Umno. People support Umno for the right reasons and we will not change our ways," he added. This followed an alleged allegation by the Opposition that Umno was losing its ground and its members were leaving for the Opposition. However, Wan Ahmad Wan Omar said Umno and Pakatan Harapan were getting stronger and new voters were coming in. He also refuted the claims that Umno had lost its chief members to the Opposition. "Those who left Umno did so because they wanted to and people from Umno never left the party," he said. He also said some of the allegations in the list of alleged detractors were not correct or were not even Umno members. The party leadership met Umno members at the Sabak Bernam Umno club on Wednesday where the party members were briefed on the details of the allegations in the list of allegedly detractors. According to the list, there were 123 names of "enemies" of Umno. Some of the allegations were true while others were not. Some of them are Umno members who are allegedly pulling their weight in Umno to undermine the party leadership. Ahmad Fuad said Umno would also be taking action against any members who were found being involved in the alleged activities. The party said it would also be taking action against Umno officers, especially those in the vice-presidency who were not doing their job. The party, however, declined to identify any names in the list.3-D Culture of Human Osteoblast-like Cells in an Alginate Gel Matrix Grafted with a Silica-based Nanofibrous Sacrificial Template. 3-D porous structures represent a sustainable substitute for two-dimensional culture. Comparison of sublingual spray and intranasal inactivated influenza vaccine in healthy adults. While sublingual administration of an inactivated vaccine is well tolerated and noninvasive, the efficiency of the route remains uncertain. This study aims to compare the serological response of intranasal and sublingual inactivated influenza vaccine. Healthy adults were enrolled in a randomized, observer-blind, phase I trial to receive either one dose of intranasal vaccine (split-virion-inactivated influenza vaccine, FluMist, MedImmune, Gaithersburg, MD) or sublingual vaccine (split-virion-inactivated influenza vaccine, Flumist/Flumist Junior, MedImmune) containing the same influenza antigen. Blood samples were collected before and 14 days after vaccination, and the hemagglutination-inhibition titer was determined. Of 82 enrolled subjects, 62 completed the study and were included in the analysis. The geometric mean titer of 10(-2.0) on day 14 after vaccination in the sublingual group was significantly lower than that of 1.0 in the intranasal group ( $p = 0.004$ ) and in FluMist group ( $p$  Sourav Ganguly has also been signed up by Elo casino In the absence of a favourite, Rohan Kumar took the field and won the toss The match can be viewed live on Star Sports 2 starting at 8pm IST Rohan Kumar is an intriguing fast-bowling option for India against Scotland, having been signed up by the Rajasthan Royals, where he plays for.
