HACKER is the new anti-hero. The latest hacker hacker documentary. It has never been easy to maintain reliable internet connections. That's why we arrived at the idea of ProXPN, a reliable internet service provider (ISP) who can provide DSL, ADSL2+ or Fiber internet service. If you are tired of unreliable and laggy internet, you need to try our service. We host the game server in our datacenter so if you cannot connect to the server, you will never be able to join the game. If you want to understand how we can allow you to have a working connection with a minimal cost operation we recommend that you download and read our Technical Guide: The National Security Agency has been secretly collecting the telephone records of millions of US customers of Verizon under a top secret court order to investigate crimes, federal officials told Reuters on Wednesday. Citing US officials, Reuters said the order was sought under Section 215 of the US Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act (FISA) and signed by Judge Richard Leon. AttorneyGeneral Eric Holder said last year that the program had intercepted no call data.

"Verizon does not generally provide such information to the government," the company told Reuters in an emailed response. Section 215 of the Patriot Act allows U.S. intelligence agencies to demand that communications companies such as Verizon turn over records on customers, including metadata like calling card numbers, calling time and duration, and locations. Wiretapping customer records under Section 215 of FISA is considered one of the most sweeping surveillance powers in US history, but details of the program are secret. "In some cases, people believed to be associated with foreign intelligence are targeted for collection, which occurs when the NSA collects a database of information on a certain person or organization but does not target that person, " "NSA program collects'metadata' in mass database from U.S. citizens" c6a93da74d
