The announcement came as the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention disclosed that the number of confirmed, probable and suspected cases of the disease has risen to 23. The total is up from the 19 previously reported by the Atlanta-based Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. The first airport worker was a man who returned from West Africa. The second airport worker is a woman who flew into Atlanta from Nigeria. Neither patient is an American or a traveler who got the disease from the U.S. Ebola has been confined to West c6a93da74d
